President Nichols arose and said that the object of this gathering was to faintly show the appreciation No. 1 had of the past favors of the band, and the company themselves together. The band gave three cheers for No. 1. After every- And the Various Shades of Bronze that are to be so Popular this body had found seats, the refreshments were served, consisting of ham cake, ice cream, cigars and not too much of the Teuton's favorite beverage. The evening was devoted to songa, declamations and a few specialties. One of these specialties was a called the "Aldermanic Reel." Mr. cil committee on fire, was invited ties. This e hibition brought down the house. Prof. Toozer told of the band's trip to Camp Buford, and what odds were against them in competing for the prize, which made their victory the much more trium phant. He closed by thanking No. 1 company for the substantial evidence of their good will, and stated that whenever and wherever the band could do them honor it would most
